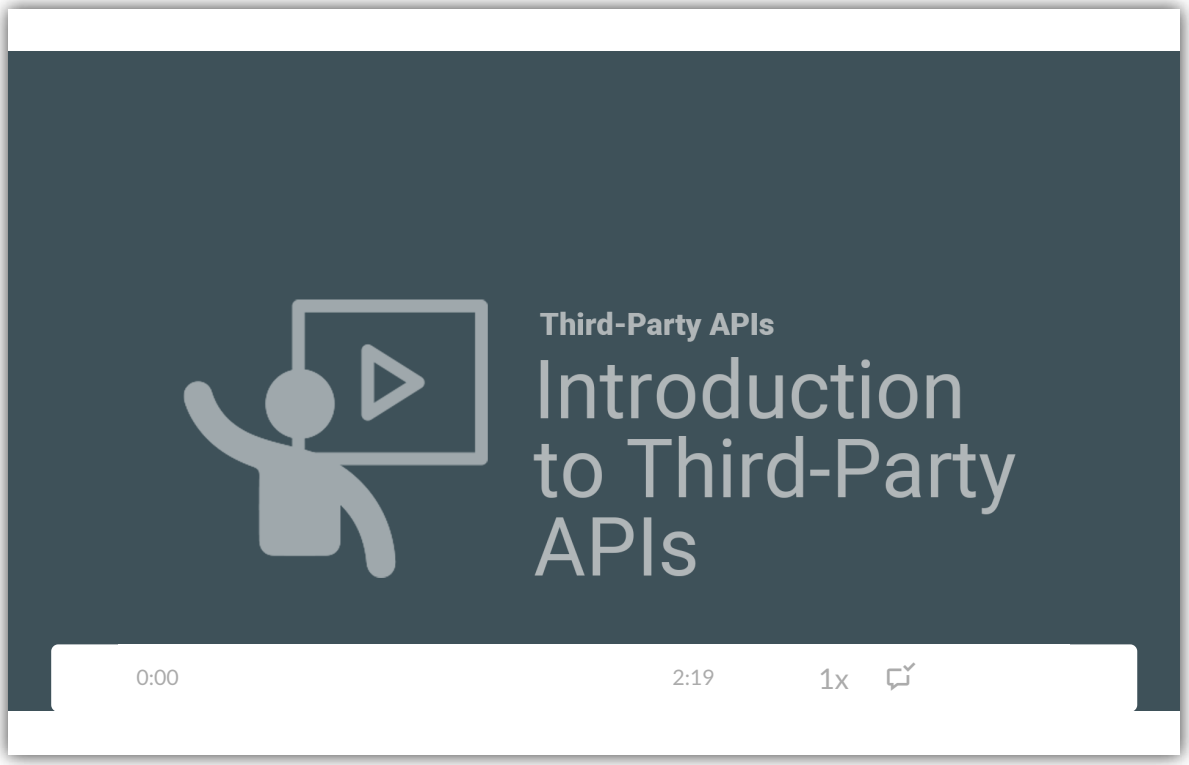
5 Introduction to Module 5

Third-Party APIs

Third-party APIs are libraries or frameworks that allow you to incorporate additional functionality into your web application. In this module, you'll learn how to use two popular APIs: Bootstrap and jQuery. You're likely to encounter both in your career as a full-stack web developer.

Watch this video to learn more about what to expect this week:



© 2020 Trilogy Education Services, a 2U, Inc. brand. All Rights Reserved.